

JUMBO 1980

二

Tufts University

It is a particular pleasure to greet the Class of 1980. We came to Tufts together, you and I. We have come to know the University together, to love it, and to appreciate its current strength and its great potential. You have been fine students. You have faced the challenges of campus life with stamina and good humor and have risen to meet them with initiative, creativity, and good will.

I know that your commitment to the quality of community life at Tufts will carry over into your new lives as citizens of the nation and the world. In the name of your University, I wish you well.

In Memoriam

Fredi Barron

Fredi

We see your face in the clouds
Your smile in the faces of the passers-by
We hear your voice in the wind
And amidst the murmurs of the crowds.
First, we are hurt and dismayed by this
Your face, your voice . . .
Then comes peace, as we find that
In the eyes and ears of our hearts and minds
You are with us forever.

Tufts, we've been through a long time together
And many the time I've doubted your worth
Housing is one problem that's been hither
It's disrepair, the filth, and yet, the dearth.
Students get closed out of courses each year
Carpenter's flames rose like the tuition
I don't frequent the library from fear there won't be a seat for me to sit in.
But when I think again of all I've learned
The people, classes, the new awareness,
I'd say no other school has so earned,
The gratitude of its student bodice.
Tufts University, soon fond farewell,
A four year heaven with a dash of hell.
